Change and Response Strategies Executive to Speak at UCEA Mid-Atlantic Region's Annual Conference

MORRISTOWN, N.J. – Christopher D'Marco, Vice President of Change & Response Strategies LLC, one of New Jersey's top management consulting firms, will speak at the UCEA Conference on a topic applicable to professionals at every level and across all industries: Project Management.

D'Marco is scheduled to give a presentation called "Project Management for the CE Professional" at the University Continuing Education Association Mid Atlantic Region's Annual Conference to be held in Annapolis, Maryland this October. As co-founder and executive member of Change and Response Strategies, LLC, with twenty years of consulting and training experience in various areas of business, D'Marco is a Project Management expert. The session will incorporate project planning basics, tools for visualizing projects, and managing concurrent projects. Both UCEA and D'Marco consider Project Management skills one of the lifelines of success.

UCEA is an international professional association geared toward those who work in higher continuing education and lifelong learning. The Mid-Atlantic regional conference, which will be held this year October 4-6, 2006, attracts between 70-120 participants.

Founded in 2004 as a consortium of management strategists, consultants and corporate trainers, Change & Response Strategies (CRS) assists private, public, educational institutions, and not-for-profit organizations meet their business objectives by clarifying their vision & mission, developing staff, and improving business processes.
